

In our Auto Collision Repair Technology program, you will become a part of a viable industry that takes pride in repairing collision-damaged vehicles. You will learn entry-level technical skills for the auto collision repair field and master the skills required to repair today's automobiles. The auto collision industry offers a variety of rewarding career options with opportunity for advancement.

